

Event Planning Service Goes Virtual

October 08, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coordinated Events, LLC is Now Offering Virtual Event Planning Services

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Coordinated Events, LLC announces that their services can now be found online. Offering a variety of wedding/event planning packages, planning your special day just got a little easier. The virtual event planning services are available for brides who may live in a different state, or are unsure if they need a wedding coordinator present on the “day of”.

This virtual service is designed to answer and assist with all wedding related questions. Helping you choose a vendor, manage your budget, create your itinerary, coordinate with your vendors, plan your wedding from another state, and handle difficult family dynamics are just a few ways the service can be of assistance virtually. “Be it by phone, Skype, email, or text,...much of your wedding planning can be done via technology, leaving you valuable time to focus on school, career, family, and most importantly...your fiancé,” says Susan Marie Cook of Coordinated Event, LLC. .

Coordinated Events, LLC has been awarded The Knot's "Best of Weddings" for 2012, 2013, & 2014, Wedding Wire's "Bride's Choice" Award for 2011, 2012, & 2013 and "Couple's Choice" Award for 2014, as well as Triad Weddings Magazines "Reader's Choice" Award for 2013 & 2014. Coordinated Events, LLC is thrilled to offer this new service to brides choosing North Carolina for their once-in-a-lifetime wedding! For more information go to www.coordinatedevents.com.
